

General Release of Liability

I _____ am fully aware of the risks and hazards inherent to participating in acrobatics, aerial and physical stunts and all activities associated with participation in such classes. I understand that circus is a calculated risk sport and contains inherent risks and dangers (including serious injury and death) that no amount of care, caution, instruction, or expertise can eliminate. I understand the scope, nature, and extent of the risks involved in the activities contemplated by this agreement and hereby voluntarily assume all risks of loss, damage or injury that may be sustained by them,

I hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless Kinetic Theory, LLC/Stephanie Abrams from any loss, liability, damage or cost I may incur due to injuries related to participating in classes and/or events.

I HAVE READ AND VOLUNTARILY SIGN THIS RELEASE

Studio Policies

- Tuition and registration fees are non-refundable.
- Students must always wear proper workout attire. Students should not wear jeans, footed tights, jewelry, watches or belts.
- Students should always come to class well-groomed (i.e. nails trimmed, long hair tied back).
- Students should not come to class if they are sick, have not eaten all day or have an active injury.
- No gum, food or beverages other than water are allowed on the mats.
- No one is allowed on the mats or equipment without coach supervision and/or approval. For your own safety, please wait for your coach.
- Arriving more than 20min. late for class may result in exclusion from that class. This policy is exercised at the coach's discretion.
- Circus training is very challenging and, at times, quite uncomfortable. Students will be sore after class and may experience burns or bruises from the aerial apparatus. These are normal aspects of circus training that take some getting used to. Talk to your/your child's coach if you have any concerns and please communicate any pertinent information or prior injuries.
- Students must try to keep a positive attitude at all times.

For children's classes:

- Parents must remain in the building at all times during any toddler or beginning level classes.
- Only students and participating parents or caregivers are allowed out on the mats during class. Siblings or friends can only participate if they are enrolled in the class or have paid for a drop-in.
- For safety reasons, young children are grouped by age, and older children by skill level. Siblings and friends can only take class together if they meet the age/skill requirements for the class.
- Parents and caregivers are welcome to watch classes but must refrain from side-coaching or commenting during the class. Concerns or suggestions should be directed to the office staff, the director or to your child's coach before or after class.
